PROGRAM IS ELABORATE

Retail Merchants' Association Plans to Increase Membership—General and Personal Notes.

Special Correspondence of The Star.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., September 17, 1913.
The eighty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Methodist Protestant Church here will be celebrated October 5-10 next with elaborate exercises. The program was announced today, and it provides that each evening during the progress of the celebration noted speakers, both clerical and lay, will make addresses.

With a Sunday school rally at 9:30 o'clock the morning of October 5 the exercises will be opened. Rev. C. H. Stroussburg, pastor, of the North Carolina conference, will deliver a sermon of historic character, and at 7:30 o'clock that evening Rev. John S. Bowers, D. D., president of the Maryland annual conference, will preach. The pastors of the city, together with the members of their congregations, have been invited to attend the exercises of October 6. Rev. P. T. Little, pastor of All Saints M. P. Church, Baltimore, and former president of the conference, will preach the evening of October 7.

Patriotic Exercises Scheduled.

Services of a patriotic character will be held the evening of October 8. Addresses will be made by Representatives Burnett of Alabama and C. C. Carlin of this city. Members of the various patriotic societies of the city will be invited to attend, and special music will be furnished by the chorale of the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Church, Washington.

The evening of October 9 a sermon will be preached by Rev. W. Kirk, pastor of St. John's Methodist Protestant Church, Baltimore, who is a former Alexandrian. With a sermon by Rev. David L. Greenfield, D. D., Westminster, Md., the evening of October 10, the exercises will be brought to a close.

Seeking Larger Membership.

A systematic campaign with a view of increasing its membership will be waged by the Retail Merchants' Association at an early date. The foregoing action was decided upon by the association at its meeting which was held last night. A committee of ten was appointed for this purpose, and members of this committee will secure automobiles and visit every merchant in the city, and identify with the association with the view of having him or her join its ranks.

There was an informal discussion of the employers' liability bill. The opinion prevailed among those present that it should be amended in some respects. Alleged overcharge on long-distance telephone calls was also discussed by the members.

The following new members were elected: Whitestone & Kimmel, J. Kent White and Edward M. Bigelow.

One Day in Police Court.

Hitting Harry Baker, colored, with a brick cost Alfred Peters, colored, $25 in the police court today. Baker's left eye was closed this morning and his face badly bruised. Following the assault he went to the hospital, where surgical aid was given by Dr. Llewellyn Powell.

A small colored boy named Fields Richards was run down by a horse and wagon driven by Gus Constantine at King and St. Asaph streets last night. His left ear was badly cut as a result of the collision. The child was taken to the police court today. He was charged with careless driving.

A continuance until 4 o'clock this afternoon was granted in the case of John Arrington, alleged proprietor of an ark which was raided by the police Sunday morning. The officers obtained a quantity of liquor and beer from the vessel. The postponement was due to the absence of a material witness for the state.

A white girl named Estelle Plogger, charged with vagrancy, was sent to the workhouse for thirty days.

A stranger giving the name of James H. Simmons, charged with being a suspicious character, was acquitted.

In the case of James Grant, from the Soldiers' Home, charged with having in his possession a razor, a fine of $5 was imposed.

E. Brandt, pastor. Only the immediate relatives will be witnesses. The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. William E. White, and Mr. Stoier will have for his best man William F. White. Following the ceremony the couple will leave for a northern bridal trip, and will be at home after October 10.
